

Gentlemen, the BPL proposal threatens the very life of high frequency amateur radio operation, the ability of hams to communicate over long distances. Consider that hams operate on tiny segments of the spectrum anyway, and the harm that would be done to amateur radio receptions during emergency operations such as hurricane alerts et al. BPL is something that would do harm to many for the benefit of a few. I strongly urge you to stop BPL before it goes any further.